CHICAGO, IL — August 27, 2026 — MZI Group, Inc., a Chicago-based enterprise with 27 years of proven performance across construction, telecom, mechanical services, and building operations, today announced the official launch of Fulton Transportation, LLC, a new freight brokerage division operating under the MZI Group family of businesses.

Fulton Transportation launches today — August 27 — a date that carries deep significance. The number 27 reflects Arthur Miller's 27-year journey as a business owner, the experience behind every decision, and the standard of service Fulton Transportation will bring to every load. Operating from Fulton Street in the heart of Chicago, the company's name and identity are rooted in both where it started and where it is going.

"Before MZI Group, I was in transportation. This launch is a full-circle moment — returning to where it all began, with 27 years of business discipline, relationships, and resources now backing every load we move. Fulton Transportation isn't just a new company. It's the next chapter of a story that started on day one."

— Arthur Miller, CEO, Fulton Transportation / MZI Group, Inc.

Why Now — Strategic Timing

The launch of Fulton Transportation is deliberate and timely. Rapid expansion in electrical infrastructure, data center construction, and large-scale industrial development has created surging demand for reliable freight coordination. MZI Group's existing relationships across these industries — built over nearly three decades — position Fulton Transportation to step directly into that demand with trusted connections already in place.

As a freight brokerage, Fulton Transportation connects shippers with vetted, reliable carriers, ensuring freight moves efficiently, safely, and on time. The division's focus:

- Building long-term partnerships with shippers and carriers built on consistent performance
- Serving the growth industries of electrical infrastructure, data centers, and large-scale development
- Delivering clear communication and full accountability on every load
- Bringing the operational discipline of a 27-year organization to every freight transaction
